Are you a small business owner looking for micro-loan funding to grow, expand, or sustain your business? Do you need $50,000.00 or less to purchase equipment, inventory, access working capital, or start your business? Join the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) and Butte College SBDC, in our upcoming "in-person" micro-loans event and meet micro-lenders and resource partners to hear about available micro-loans up to $50,000.00, types of micro-loans, and how to prepare for and access these loans. This event is designed to connect and match small business owners and entrepreneurs to micro-lenders. Lenders will provide you with the insight you need to make your funding opportunity a reality, and resource partners will guide you through the resources you need to do so. Agenda includes micro-lenders' panel, resource partners, and networking and connecting with micro-lenders to discuss your specific funding needs.
